11 Tri City Adult Education Consortium

Fiscal Declaration - Consortium Approved

Consortium Name: 11 Tri City Adult Education Consortium

Funding Channel: Fiscal Agent

Fiscal Agent: Paramount Unified School District

Narrative: It is the intent of the Tri City Adult Education Consortium to progress in the implementation of the three-year plan which includes building on existing programs as well as creating new programs based upon student interest data.

Furthermore, Tri City will continue to focus on developing career pathways and guided pathways as it relates to CTE classes: Business and Finance, Child Development, Cosmetology, Computer Information Systems, Medical, and Public Safety.

Additionally, Tri City plans to further its work in curriculum alignment in order to assure consistency in course of study, duration, and educational experiences in shared courses throughout the consortium. Moreover, the alignment of courses and programs will ensure that students are able to transition between providers as well as in to post-secondary programs. The consortium members are also committed to partner with local structures including WIB and local Chamber of Commerce to solicit their participation and input in further support of students meeting their career goals.
