11 Tri City Adult Education Consortium

Fiscal Declaration - Consortium Approved

Consortium Name: 11 Tri City Adult Education Consortium

Funding Channel: Fiscal Agent

Fiscal Agent: Paramount Unified

Narrative: The Tri City Adult Education Consortium to implement the three-year plan which includes building on current programs as well as established new programs based upon student interest data and need. Furthermore, Tri City will continue to focus on developing career pathways and guided pathways as it relates to CTE classes: Business and Finance, Child Development, Cosmetology, Computer Information Systems, Medical, and Public Safety. Additionally, Tri City plans to align courses and programs to ensure that students can transition smoothly between providers as well as in post-secondary programs. Additionally, the consortium members are committed to partner with local structures including WIB and local Chamber of Commerce to solicit their participation and input in further support of students meeting their career and life goals.
