45 Rio Hondo Region Adult Education Consortium

Fiscal Declaration - Consortium Approved

Consortium Name: 45 Rio Hondo Region Adult Education Consortium

Funding Channel: Direct Funded

Narrative: RHRAEC is committed to serving adult students in our region. Public open Coordinating Council meetings are held monthly. These meetings show transparency to all member agencies and stakeholders. Each member has been actively working to fulfill their plans for the 2019/2020 year. EMRAS has begun with creating their new Trades pathway. They have started an Electrician and Construction courses. WAS has begun their new Bus Drivers Training Program. Tri-Cities ROP is continuing their Dental program and are stream lining the curriculum for a shorter course but with their same rigorous course. ERAS is continuing to pursue the best ESL time and dates to serve their much needed adult students. RHC continues to provide an adult counselor for the four other agencies, increasing the number of adult students enrolling in college. RHC continues to actively facilitate articulation with the adult schools and in the coming year, with the ROP.

Changes: In the year 2017/2018, WAS gave 2.1% of their COLA to three member agencies. On April 5, 2019, the members voted to permanently move the funds being held by Tri-Cities ROP to the three other agencies. They are: El Rancho Adult Education Center $54,520.00 Rio Hondo College $22,578.00 Tri-Cities ROP $10,452.00 The CFAD will reflect the voted on permanent changes.
