60 Solano Adult Education Consortium

Allocation Amendment Summary

Fiscal Declaration

The Fiscal Declaration information in this section has been provided as a courtesy. It has not been changed since CFAD has been approved by the Member Representatives.

Consortium Name: 60 Solano Adult Education Consortium

Funding Channel: Direct Funded

Narrative: The member allocation has not changed from the previous year as each member is consistently growing and expanding access in the 7 program areas, class offerings, and staff capacity. The allocation aligns with the 19-20 objectives to: 1) Develop consortium-wide career pathways programs; 2) Establish programs that support Adults with Disabilities; 3) Develop seamless postsecondary transitions; 4) Provide of counseling and support services that enable students to stay focused on reaching career and academic goals; 5) Develop more programs that help Solano community members assist K-12 students to succeed academically; and 6) Expand access to ESL and high school completion courses The COLA was used to support 2 consortium-wide initiatives: hiring a transition navigator/specialist and develop a non-union trades preapprenticeship program. The remainder was divided among the 4 adult school members.

Changes: No Changes
