02 Antelope Valley Regional Adult Education Consortium CERTIFIED

Allocation Amendment: 2023-24

Allocation Amendment Summary

Fiscal Declaration

The Fiscal Declaration information in this section has been provided as a courtesy. It has not been changed since CFAD has been approved by the Member Representatives.

Consortium Name: 02 Antelope Valley Regional Adult Education Consortium

Funding Channel: Direct Funded

Narrative: Both AV Adult Education and Antelope Valley College representatives form the consortium, and they have reached a consensus to adopt a direct funded approach for the upcoming 2023-2024 academic year. The proposed funding allocations are designed to support the consortium's objectives, which aim to enhance adult education students' access to blended learning programs, increase student retention and completion rates, and provide additional resources such as counseling services, technology/equipment, and additional academic support. The consortium plans to collaborate with various agencies to develop career pathways and apprenticeships that align with regional demands, upgrade facilities to ensure a secure learning environment, and promote programs to all stakeholders through effective communication and marketing strategies.

Changes: No Changes
