 - d. Minutes of the previous month's meeting are distributed to members and posted to <https://sites.google.com/srcs.org/marin-adult-education-program/home> three business days prior to the upcoming monthly Governance Meeting.

Article VI. Workgroups

Ad hoc Workgroups are of short duration and vary in size and composition. Workgroups may be composed of faculty, staff, and other delegates from member and partner institutions, however decision-making resides with member institutions. Workgroups represent the interests of the official Adult Education program areas defined by the State. Workgroups may be formed/disbanded as needed.

- A. Responsibilities- Workgroups perform tasks under the direction of the Governance Committee. Tasks may include research, meetings with partners, updating of consortium documents, and other short-term charges.
- B. Meetings- Workgroups meet as-needed.

Article VII. Funding Model

- A. The Consortium funding model is determined by unanimous Consortium vote. As of the 2022-2023 year, the MAEP Fiscal Agent is Marin Community College District (MCCD).

- B. The Consortium is governed by the financial operating principles, and related administrative policies and procedures of the fiscal agent. The administrative fee (up to 5%), operating principles, policies and procedures of the fiscal agent will be reviewed and agreed upon by Members prior to the beginning of each new fiscal year.
- C. The Fiscal Agent, MCCD, will provide each member with a monthly distribution schedule of CAEP funds. MCCD will distribute CAEP funds in the amount of 1/12 of each member's total annual allocation less the indirect cost rate established by MCCD for the purpose of fund administration. The annual distribution schedule outlines the requirements of AB104 Section 84913 and requires the signed acknowledgement of each member institution's fiscal officer and official MAEP representative.
- D. Prior to the submission of the annual Consortium Fiscal Administration Declaration (CFAD), the Consortium may vote to change the designation of the Fiscal Agent or institute Direct Funding. The decision must include Revised Marin Adult Education Consortium Bylaws, if determined necessary for the purpose of the Consortium as defined in Article VII. Further, the decision must be made by unanimous vote by the date established by the California Adult Education Program Office in Sacramento.
- E. Consortium Members will monitor CAEP carry-over funding, defined as any amount of CAEP funding carried-over from a prior fiscal year, by reviewing the FIFO Report ("First In First Out") found in NOVA. Members are encouraged to allocate available funding for the benefit of members with new or existing programs in need of additional financial resources.

Article VIII. Amendments

These bylaws will be reviewed annually during a regularly scheduled, monthly Governance Committee meeting when posted as an agenda item. These bylaws may be amended as needed with a consensus vote by members present.
