Corrective Action Plan

Carmel had fewer expenditures and did not spend any funds on materials and tech. We will spend more as the year progresses through Q3 and Q4.

Summary of Activities:

We are still below our expected income but have had more supplies needs. We will also have technology needs this year as well.

Corrective Action Plan

Due to the start of the semester, delay in setting up AEP budgets, and hiring processes in progress expenses were delayed until Q2. Other funds (from Perkins and SEA) were used to cover expenses related to adult education goals (paying for academic pathway coordination, outreach, and counseling). AEP funds will be used primarily beginning Q2 and Q3 to fund the planned activities.

Summary of Activities:

Faculty professional development, pathways planning in ESL, program planning, data analysis, developing marketing strategy for ESL, establishing college and career counseling and outreach services at the adult school location.

Summary of Activities:

During second quarter we continued our ESL courses and expanded an evening Beginner ESL class due to a large waitlist. We continued HSD/GED courses, Computer CTE courses and Computer classes for Adults with Disabilities. We opened our Hospitality CTE courses, Kitchen Fundamentals and Foundations in Hospitality in the second quarter. We also expanded the hours of student support services through our College and Career Center. Support staff continued to operate the front office including enrollment and reporting. We were charged an indirect fee of 5%
