61 Sonoma County Adult Education Consortium

Allocation Amendment Summary

Fiscal Declaration

The Fiscal Declaration information in this section has been provided as a courtesy. It has not been changed since CFAD has been approved by the Member Representatives.

Consortium Name: 61 Sonoma County Adult Education Consortium

Funding Channel: Direct Funded

Narrative: The Sonoma County Adult Education Consortium (SCAEC) will adhere to the Annual Plan for 2023-24, which will be based on the SCAEC Three-Year Plan. This consortium is direct funded, and it is the goal to continue with this model. All the service providers agreed that the current direct funded model works well, and they are not interested in reverting back to the fiscal agent model. The allocation percentage for the three agencies has remained consistent over the past years, with approximately 38-39% going to SRJC, a little over 53% going to PAS, and close to 8% going to SCOE. The allocations for each service provider might vary depending on the annual allocations to the consortium, but the percentage of the split remains the same. The allocations provided here were reviewed and approved by all consortium members during oversight committee meeting held on April 26th, 2023.
