70 North Central Adult Education Consortium (Yuba)

Allocation Amendment Summary

Fiscal Declaration

The Fiscal Declaration information in this section has been provided as a courtesy. It has not been changed since CFAD has been approved by the Member Representatives.

Consortium Name: 70 North Central Adult Education Consortium (Yuba)

Funding Channel: Fiscal Agent

Fiscal Agent: Not Selected

Narrative: Per our annual and 3-year plan, each member annually conducts needs assessments which helps drive member plans, and our annual plan, while supporting our 3-year plan. The consortium is continuing to focus on outreach, support, and investments in programs to improve ESL/VESL, and CTE/IET programs; technical, academic and work-readiness competencies of all students so they are better prepared to transition to college and careers. As a result, more investments will be made in CTE, Integrated, and VESL instruction, WBL, and career exploration. Additional investments will also be made in professional development to better prepare instructors for distance learning, integrated instruction, curricular mapping, alignment of assessments, and data driven instruction. Consortium-wide, all members will also focus on improved recruitment and retention strategies as well as the integration of additional student support systems. The consortium will be retaining the fourth navigator and investing in online programs and services to continue to strengthen options for students, especially in our rural regions. Current online programs such as Burlington English, AZTEC, Reading Plus, HISET prep will also be expanded to improve student access to programs throughout the region. NCAEC will also continue to work with Tri-County ROP, One-Stops, LWIBS, and other partners to braid funding and provide wrap-around services while limiting duplication

Changes: Konocti Unified has decided to discontinue its Adult Education program for the 22-23 school-year. Numerous discussions have taken place in Lake County to ensure the same level of adult education programs and services are available in Lake County. The NCAEC has developed an MOU between Konocti and Lake County members. Konocti Unified's allocation will be reduced to zero and Woodland Community College (Lake County Campus) will receive Konocti Unified's full allocation for the 22-23 school-year. Konocti will remain an unallocated member and continue to work with Lake County members and the consortium to support adult education in Lake County.
